

SunGard Communications Consent Form

Recent changes in Federal Communications Commission facsimile regulations, as well as various state regulations, require us to have your written consent to continue communicating with you by fax. To comply with the new rules and to avoid disruption of information provided to you, all necessary contacts at our clients' locations must complete and return this form. Effective immediately, if we do not receive this form, we must remove you from all of our fax communications, including those for product support. (This does not apply to e-mail communications.)

Please complete the information below, printing clearly.
